Minimum Additional Investment[^]	RM 10,000	RM 500
[^] subject to our discretion, you may negotiate for a lower amount.
Investment Objective	The objective of the Fund is to achieve long-term capital growth, primarily through the Fund's investments in foreign Shariah-compliant equities, sukuk, Islamic collective investment schemes and Islamic money market instruments.
Performance Benchmark	Absolute return of 6% per annum. Information on the Fund's benchmark can be obtained from the Manager.
Investment Strategy	The Fund seeks to achieve its investment objective by investing a maximum of 100% of its NAV in foreign Shariah-compliant equities and foreign Shariah-compliant equity-related securities, sukuk, Islamic money market instruments and/or Islamic collective investment schemes. The remaining of its NAV will be invested in Islamic deposits and/or held in cash for liquidity purposes. We shall actively change the allocation of the Fund's investments into different asset classes to optimise returns to the investors. We may take temporary defensive positions that may be inconsistent with the Fund's principal strategy by reducing its investment into the foreign Shariah-compliant equities, foreign Shariah-compliant equity-related securities, sukuk and Islamic collective investment schemes to raise liquidity levels of the Fund during adverse market condition and protect Unit Holders' interest. Similarly, we may raise liquidity levels if the liquidity profile of the investments change significantly. In raising the Fund's liquidity levels, we may invest into Islamic deposits, Islamic money market instruments and/or hold cash. If temporary defensive position is undertaken, there is a risk that the Fund may not be able to meet its investment objective. Multi Asset Approach We will deploy a multi-asset framework that is designed to derive the optimal asset allocation between the Fund's underlying asset classes: global equities, sukuk, and cash. Asset allocation is optimised to navigate the different market cycles throughout the investment life of the Fund to ensure that the Fund can achieve the targeted annual return. The optimal asset allocation of the Fund is derived by performing tactical adjustments to the Fund's investment in global equities and sukuk. The tactical adjustments enable the Fund to be adaptive to current market cycles to improve the overall risk-adjusted return profile of the Fund. The tactical adjustments is determined by following a three-step process: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Quantitatively capturing multiple investment themes that drive global capital markets (e.g. whether markets are in a risk on/risk off mode); 2. Applying a score on each of the investment themes analysed in Step 1. This score is allocated based on the expected directionality of each theme and the probability of occurrence. For example, the score may indicate whether expectations of global growth (investment themes) is strong or weak; and 3. We will then consider how relatively favourable each underlying asset classes is based on the scores from Step 2. For example, a positive score on global growth would imply that global equities are relatively more attractive vs. sukuk.

	We will adopt a rule-based risk reduction approach in deriving the final asset allocation for the Fund. The risk reduction rule may result in an overall reduction in the Fund's equity weight when the Fund experiences large drawdowns. Global Equities Based on the optimised allocation from our multi asset framework, the Fund will be investing primarily in companies that are exposed to secular growth and/or companies with defensible supply side dynamics (barriers to entry and competitive moats) either directly or via Islamic collective investment schemes. Sukuk and Islamic Money Market Instruments Based on the optimised allocation from our multi asset framework, the Fund will be investing primarily in ringgit denominated sukuk and Islamic money market instruments (either directly or via Islamic collective investment schemes). Islamic derivatives We may use Islamic derivatives such as Islamic foreign exchange forward contracts for hedging purposes. Islamic foreign exchange forward contracts may be used to hedge the currency risk of the Fund's investments which are not denominated in MYR. The employment of Islamic derivatives under these circumstances is expected to reduce the impact of foreign currency movements on the Fund's NAV. While the hedging strategy will assist with mitigating the potential foreign exchange losses by the Fund, any potential gains from the hedging will be capped as well. The Fund's global exposure from Islamic derivatives position will not exceed the Fund's NAV at all times. The global exposure of the Fund is calculated based on commitment approach as illustrated under the "Investment Restrictions and Limits" of the Prospectus.
Distribution Policy	Distribution of income, if any, is incidental.
Mode of Distribution	You may elect to receive the income distribution by way of reinvestment as additional Units into the Fund or cash payment. Any income distribution payable which is less than or equal to RM1,000.00 will be automatically reinvested based on the NAV per Unit on the income payment date which is 2 Business Days after the income distribution date at no cost.
The Parties Involved
The Manager	Nomura Asset Management Malaysia Sdn Bhd
The Trustee	Deutsche Trustees Malaysia Berhad
The Shariah Adviser	ZICO Shariah Advisory Services Sdn Bhd
Asset Allocation
0% - 100%	Foreign Shariah-compliant equities and foreign Shariah-compliant equity-related securities, sukuk, Islamic money market instruments and/or Islamic collective investment schemes. The remaining of the Fund's NAV will be invested in Islamic deposits and/or held in cash.
Key Risks
What are the possible outcomes of my investment?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The value of the Fund and the income that you may receive from your investment may fall or rise. There may be a risk that you may lose some or all of your investments.
FOR INFORMATION CONCERNING RISK FACTORS (INCLUDING THE SPECIFIC RISKS WHEN INVESTING IN COLLECTIVE INVESTMENT SCHEMES), WHICH YOU SHOULD CONSIDER, PLEASE REFER TO CHAPTER 4, "UNDERSTANDING THE RISKS OF THE FUND" OF THE PROSPECTUS (WHICH MAY BE AMENDED FROM TIME TO TIME).
Specific Risks of the Fund
Shariah-compliant Equity Risk
Adverse price movements of any Shariah-compliant securities invested by the Fund may adversely affect the Fund's NAV. We strive to mitigate the impact of such Shariah-compliant securities risk through portfolio diversification.

Meanwhile investing in Shariah-compliant equity-related securities such as Shariah-compliant rights issues and Shariah-compliant warrants, where their price movement is dependent on the price movement of the underlying of the Shariah-compliant equity-related securities, the risk is generally higher than their Shariah-compliant equities as these Shariah-compliant equity-related securities are a leveraged form of investment. The price of Shariah-compliant equity-related securities generally fluctuates more than the Shariah-compliant equities and consequently may affect the volatility of the Fund's NAV.

Shariah-compliant warrants are financial instruments that give the buyer the right but not obligation to purchase or sell Shariah-compliant equities at a predetermined price before the expiry date. Such investment may experience time decay, and the erosion of value accelerates as the instrument advances to its expiry date.

Credit and Default Risk

Credit risk relates to the creditworthiness of the issuers of the sukuk or Islamic money market instruments, and their expected ability to make timely payment of profit and/or principal. Any adverse situations faced by the issuer may impact the value as well as liquidity of the sukuk or Islamic money market instruments. In the case of rated sukuk or Islamic money market instruments, this may lead to a credit downgrade.

Default risk relates to the risk that an issuer of a sukuk or Islamic money market instrument either defaulting on payments or failing to make payments in a timely manner which will in turn adversely affect the value of the sukuk or Islamic money market instrument. If the financial institution which the Fund places Islamic deposits with defaults in payment or become insolvent, the Fund may also suffer capital losses with regards to the capital invested and profits foregone, causing the performance of the Fund to be adversely affected. This could affect the value of the Fund as up to 100% of the NAV of the Fund may be invested in Islamic deposits, Islamic money market instruments and/or held in cash.

Interest Rate Risk

Islamic deposits placed with financial institutions are subjected to the movement in the country's interest rate; in general, this corresponds to the central bank's overnight policy rate. The profit rates offered by the financial institutions are expected to be lower in a low interest rate environment. As the relationship between interest rate and sukuk prices are inverse, the Fund's holding in sukuk will be negatively affected in a rising interest rate environment. To some extent, the interest rate of these sukuk would also be impacted by external environment such as shift to/from emerging market sukuk or change in outlook/rating by international rating agencies.

Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk refers to the ease of liquidating an asset depending on the asset's volume traded in the market. If the Fund holds assets that are illiquid, or are difficult to dispose of, the value of the Fund will be negatively affected when it has to sell such assets at unfavourable prices.

The liquidity risk of the Fund also refers to our ability as manager to honour redemption requests or to pay Unit Holders' redemption proceeds in a timely manner. This is subject to the Fund's holding of adequate liquid assets, its ability to borrow on a temporary basis as permitted by the relevant laws and/or its ability to redeem the Fund's investments at fair value. Should there be inadequate liquid assets held, the Fund may not be able to honour requests for redemption or to pay Unit Holders' redemption proceeds in a timely manner and may be forced to dispose the Fund's investments at unfavourable prices to meet redemption requirements.

Country Risk

The investment of the Fund may be affected by risk specific to the country in which it invests in. Such risks include changes in the country's economic, social and political environment. The value of the assets of the Fund may also be affected by uncertainties such as currency repatriation restrictions or other developments in the law or regulations of the country in which the Fund invest in.

Currency Risk

Currency risk is also known as foreign exchange risk where the risk is associated with the Fund's underlying investments which are denominated in different currencies than the Fund's base currency. The impact of the exchange rate movement between the Fund's base currency and the currencies of the underlying investments may result in depreciation or appreciation of the value of the Fund's investments as expressed in MYR.

In order to manage currency risk, we may employ currency hedging strategies to fully or partially hedge the foreign currency exposure of the Fund's investments not denominated in MYR. Currency hedging may reduce the effect of the exchange rate movement for the Fund but it does not entirely eliminate the currency risk between the Fund's investments and the Base Currency. The unhedged portion of the Fund will still be affected by the exchange rate movements and it may cause fluctuation of NAV of the Fund. You should note that if the exchange rate moves favourably, the Fund will not benefit from any upside in currency movement due to the hedging strategy. In addition, hedging is subject to a minimum size of entering into a hedging contract and the cost of hedging will be borne by the Fund and may affect returns of the Fund.

OTC Counterparty Risk

OTC counterparty risk is the risk associated with the other party to an OTC Islamic derivative transaction not meeting its obligations. If the counterparty to the OTC Islamic derivative transaction is unable to meet or otherwise defaults on its obligations (for example, due to bankruptcy or other financial difficulties), the Fund may be exposed to significant losses greater than the cost of the Islamic derivatives. The risk of default of a counterparty is directly linked to the creditworthiness of that counterparty. Should there be a downgrade in the credit rating of the OTC Islamic derivatives' counterparty, we will evaluate the situation and reassess the creditworthiness of the counterparty. We will take the necessary steps in the best interest of the Fund.

Related Party Transaction Risk

The Fund may invest in Islamic collective investment schemes of other asset management companies which are related to us and may also have dealings with parties related to these companies. Such related party transactions may potentially result in conflict of interests between the Unit Holders and us. In managing such conflict of interests, all transactions with related parties will be executed on terms which are best available to the Fund and based on best execution and at arms-length transaction between independent parties.

Reclassification of Shariah-compliant Status

Shariah-compliant securities and instruments held by the Fund are subject to periodic review by the SAC of the SC, SAC of BNM, the Shariah boards of the relevant Islamic indices or the Shariah Adviser. These securities and instruments may be reclassified as non-compliant during such reviews and the Fund may need to take the necessary steps to dispose of such securities or instruments, upon the advice of the Shariah Adviser. Consequently, the Fund may realise some losses in the disposal of the same or there may be opportunity loss for the Fund as the Fund may not be permitted to retain excess capital gains derived from such disposal. Please refer to section 9.4 Shariah Investment Guidelines adopted by the Shariah Adviser of the Prospectus on the rules on disposal of Shariah non-compliant securities and instruments.

Investments in Islamic Collective Investment Schemes

Investing in Islamic collective investment schemes may be more costly to the Fund than if the Fund had invested in the underlying investments directly as the Fund will indirectly be paying the fees and expenses of the Islamic collective investment schemes in addition to the Fund's direct fees and expenses. Investing in other Islamic collective investment schemes may subject the Fund to the risk that (i) the valuations of the Fund may not reflect the true value of the underlying Islamic collective investment schemes at a specific time and/or (ii) the valuation of the underlying Islamic collective investment schemes may not be available as at the relevant valuation point for the Fund which could result in significant losses or inaccurate pricing for the Fund. The Fund's investments in Islamic collective investment schemes may also subject the Fund to additional risks (such as risk associated with the investment manager of the Islamic collective investment scheme) than if the Fund would have invested directly in the underlying investment of the Islamic collective investment schemes. The risk associated with the investment manager of the Islamic collective investment schemes includes but is not limited to the risk of non-adherence to the investment objective, strategy and policies of the Islamic collective investment schemes, the risk of direct or indirect losses resulting from inadequate or failed operational and administrative processes and systems of the investment manager of the Islamic collective investment schemes, and the risk that the Islamic collective investment schemes may underperform due to poor investment decisions by the investment manager of the Islamic collective investment schemes.

Any adverse price movement of such Islamic collective investment schemes will adversely affect the Fund's NAV.

Risks Associated With the Use of Accretion or Amortised Cost Accounting

We are using accretion or amortised cost accounting to value Islamic money market instruments with remaining term to maturity of not more than 90 days at the time of acquisition. Accretion or amortised cost accounting is an accounting process used to adjust the value between the purchase date and maturity date of an Islamic money market instruments that has been bought at a discounted rate or premium. Accretion is the accumulation of paper value on a discounted Islamic money market instruments until it reaches maturity. Where amortisation is used to calculate the yield at any given time of an Islamic money market instruments bought at a premium, it is the writing off of the investment's premium over its projected life until maturity.

We have delegated the fund accounting and valuation services of the Fund to the Trustee. There may be a possibility of incorrect valuation performed by the Trustee due to human error or system failure. To mitigate this risk, we have our own set of accretion or amortised cost accounting to reconcile the accretion or amortised cost performed by the Trustee on a daily basis. Should the difference in valuation exceeds the threshold of 0.05%, we will perform an investigation on the Trustee's valuation.

Suspension of Redemption Request Risk

Having considered the best interests of Unit Holders, the redemption requests by the Unit Holders may be subject to suspension due to exceptional circumstances stated under Section 6.8 of the Prospectus. In such case, Unit Holders will not be able to redeem their Units and will be compelled to remain invested in the Fund for a longer period of time than original timeline. Hence, their investments will continue to be subject to the risks inherent to the Fund.

THE ABOVE SHOULD NOT BE CONSIDERED TO BE AN EXHAUSTIVE LIST OF THE RISKS WHICH INVESTORS SHOULD CONSIDER BEFORE INVESTING INTO THE FUND. INVESTORS SHOULD BE AWARE THAT AN INVESTMENT IN THE FUND MAY BE EXPOSED TO OTHER RISKS FROM TIME TO TIME. YOU SHOULD RELY ON YOUR OWN EVALUATION TO ASSESS THE MERITS AND RISKS OF AN INVESTMENT. YOU SHOULD READ AND UNDERSTAND THE CONTENTS OF THE PROSPECTUS AND, IF NECESSARY, CONSULT YOUR ADVISER(S) BEFORE MAKING AN INVESTMENT DECISION.

- Annual Total Return of the Fund and its Benchmark for a period are calculated based on the absolute return of the Fund for that period. The calculation of the Annual Total Return of the Fund is based on NAV-to-NAV basis, and is sourced from Refinitiv Lipper. Fund performances include reinvestment of income distributions into the Fund. Further details on basis of calculation and assumption made in calculating returns is as follows:
The performance figures are a comparison of the growth/decline in NAV for the stipulated period taking into account all the distributions payable (if any) during the stipulated period:
 - Capital Return = {NAV per Unit End / NAV per Unit Beginning – 1} x 100
 - Income Return = {Income Distribution per Unit / NAV per Unit Ex-Distribution} x 100
 - Total Return = (1 + Percentage Growth)^{1/n} – 1
- The Fund commenced on 2 June 2020 as a wholesale fund.
- PTR is calculated based on the total acquisitions and total disposals of investment securities of the Fund for the financial period divided by the average net asset value of the Fund for the financial period calculated on daily basis.
