• Our share of investment profit in participant's account	10% of investment profit, determined annually.
• Our share of surplus in participants' tabarru' fund	50% of surplus, determined annually.

6. What are some of the key terms and conditions that I should be aware of?

- Importance of disclosure – You have the duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to us. If it is proven there is suppression of material fact and that it was fraudulently made or omitted, only the remedies in Schedule 9 of the Islamic Financial Services Act 2013 will apply. You must disclose all material facts such as medical condition and state the age or date of birth correct.
- Free look period – You may cancel your certificate by giving us notice in writing and returning the certificate of takaful within 15 days from the delivery date of the certificate of takaful. When we receive the notice and the certificate, we will refund the contribution paid less any expenses which may have been incurred for the medical examination of the person covered.
- Waiting period for hospital benefits
  - i) No benefit shall be payable for the claim event that occurs within 30 days from the certificate issue date or the date of last reinstatement, whichever is later, unless it is caused by an accident.
  - ii) No benefit shall be payable in respect of any of the specified illness that occurs within the first 120 days from the certificate issue date or date of last reinstatement, whichever is later.
- Waiting period for health benefits
  - i) No benefit shall be payable for the claim event that occurs within 30 days from the certificate issue date or the date of last reinstatement, whichever is later, unless it is caused by an accident.
  - ii) No critical illness benefit shall be payable in respect of Angioplasty and Other Invasive Treatments for Coronary Artery Disease, Cancer, Coronary Heart Disease requiring Surgery, Heart Attack or Serious Coronary Artery Disease that occurs within the first 60 days from the certificate issue date or the date of last reinstatement, whichever is later.
  - iii) No anti-cancer chemotherapy/radiotherapy benefit shall be payable in respect of any cancer that occurs within the first 60 days from the certificate issue date or the date of last reinstatement, whichever is later.
- Lapse of certificate – If you do not pay your contributions within the grace period and there is no value in the participant's account under the certificate, your certificate shall lapse and the person covered will not have any takaful coverage, benefit or value.
- Non-guaranteed contribution – The contributions are not guaranteed and it may be revised from time to time. At least 30-day written notice prior to the certificate anniversary shall be given to you before implementing the revised contribution rates. Any change of contribution will change the wakalah fee and commission amount accordingly.
- Portfolio withdrawal condition – We reserve the right to cancel the takaful cover as a whole if we decide to discontinue managing this takaful product by giving 30 days advance written notice to you at your last known address.
- Grace period – You are given a grace period of 30 days from the contribution due date of each subsequent contribution. If you do not pay the contribution within 30-days grace period, from the contribution due date, the contract will continue to be in force under non forfeiture privilege, it is possible that at any time the value of the participant's account might be insufficient to support the coverage under the contract.
